Master planned over 100 acres where Titanic was designed and built, Titanic Quarter is redefining what it means to work, live, play and study in central Belfast. Reflecting the achievements of history with the latest design approaches, Titanic Quarter's modern mix of residential, commercial, tourism, education and retail space has provided Belfast with a new urban quarter.

“Extraordinary things do happen here”

Let's imagine

Imagine If from this moment all of us in Belfast try to

- listen to our mind body and soul
- consume less each day
- exercise more each day
- pay attention to each other
- cherish every moment of every day

then ours is the Earth and everything that's in it
